DETAILED ACTION

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1,2,4,5 and 29 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection. Previous rejections not addressed below are withdrawn.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1,2,4-7,9-21,25 and 27-36 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Alvira et al (Molecular modeling study for chiral separation of equol enantiomers by beta-cyclodextrin, vol. 240, issues 1-5, 1999, pp. 101-108). Alvira teaches the separation of R-equol from the S-equol, which meets the limitation of a composition comprising R-equol. Alvira teaches cyclodextrin (carrier) is used in separation process. See reference. Note R-equol is the only required component for the composition claims. Alvira does not teach that the combination of equol and cyclodextrin is pharmaceutical. However, in a claim drawn to a composition a statement to intended use (pharmaceutical) has little patentable significance. In addition, it is well known that cyclodextrin can be used in pharmaceutical compositions which makes it obvious to manufacture the combination of equol and cyclodextrin. Alvira teaches all that is recited in claims 4 and 5 except for the R-equol being present in 90 or 96% enantiomeric purity. An artisan provided the technique of Alvira would have been able to optimize the purity of R-equol through routine experimentation even to the level of 90 or 96% purity. Alvira teaches all that is recited in claim 29 except for the specified conjugates. In the absence of unexpected data, it would have been obvious to employ any conjugated of the instant equol including those recited in the instant claims. One would have been motivated to do this because equol and conjugates thereof would have been expected to have been equally effective.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1 and 2 are provisionally rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1 and 2 of copending Application No. USAN 10/625,934. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because instant application consists essentially of R-equol and USAN '934 consists essentially of S-equol. Neither invention excludes the other enantiomeric form.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

Response to Applicants

Per Applicants request, the Examiner will hold the Obviousness type double patent rejection in abeyance until the indication of allowable subject matter in the present application.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
